Tumblebooks: a great way to encourage tech-savvy kids to enjoy reading and to develop a lifelong love of literacy

LAWRENCEVILLE, GEORGIA (4 August 2008) – The Gwinnett County Public Library is proud to offer Tumblebooks, an animated, online collection of talking e-books for children. Tumblebooks is a free service provided by Gwinnett County Public Library.

The online TumbleBooks are created from existing picture books published by children's book authors and converted into the TumbleBook format. There are over 130 TumbleBooks available to you from our website and more books being added every day!

The collection includes animated books, language learning books in Spanish and French, audio books, and exciting educational games, quizzes, and book report outlines. TumbleBooks has a wonderful selection of children's favorite story books, such as The Paper Bag Princess by Robert Munsch brought to life in an educational and interactive way. Other titles include, Diary of a Worm, Miss Malarkey Doesn't Live in Room 10, One Duck Stuck and Tops and Bottoms. Older children can enjoy reading from the growing collection of children's classics such as Black Beauty, Alice in Wonderland, Anne of Green Gables, etc. All of these great titles and many more are just clicks away at www.gwinnettpl.org.

The Gwinnett County Public Library is a fourteen branch library system in Gwinnett County, Georgia. The library's mission is to "support the community's informational, educational, and recreational interests with convenient, creative, customer-friendly access to materials and services."
