Make your mark* and a lasting impression on the Snellville Branch of Gwinnett County Public Library

Show support for the library in a lasting and unique way by decorating a block to be displayed with hundreds of others on a mosaic in the lobby of the Snellville branch.

SNELLVILLE, GA (30 January 2009) – Gwinnett County Public Library invites the community to join together to create a collaborative portrait of Snellville.

Members of the public are encouraged to design a block and to add it to an elaborate, 8' x 8' mosaic in the lobby of the Snellville library branch.

Wooden blocks will be available for pick-up at the Snellville branch between February 14 and April 14. Blocks can be decorated with paint, a photograph, collage, beads, or any other medium. When the design is complete, return the block to the Snellville branch, and it will be displayed with hundreds of other blocks uniquely designed by members of the community.

"I've always loved the concept of individuals contributing to an artistic whole...Snellville is a community in transition and these creative masterpieces will serve as a reminder of the support the library has received from this changing community in the past, present and future," says Snellville branch manager, Lorena Gay-Griffin.

The Snellville library branch is located at 2740 Lenora Church Road in Snellville.
