

Local Indie Author Day

FAQs

What if I do not live in Gwinnett County?

Living in Gwinnett County is not a requirement to participate in the event.

Will be contacted if I am NOT chosen to participate?

No. Due to the number of local author entries, it is impossible to contact those who have not been chosen. If you have not been contacted by October 1, please assume that your book has not been selected by the branch manager.

Can I apply for next year's event whether or not I was selected for this year's program?

Yes. You may apply again.

Can I choose the branch at which I speak?

No. Branch participation is optional and changes from year to year. Special requests cannot be accommodated.

I have been chosen for participation. Who do I contact if I have questions?

You will need to contact the branch manager who informed you of your selection with all questions and for logistics. The branch staff oversees and markets the event.

What time is the event?

Times vary. Each participating branch chooses the time that works best for their customers and other branch programs.

How will the event be set up? Will I have my own singing table?

Each participating branch will decide how to present its local authors. You will need to discuss this with the branch manager.

Can the library staff help me with the selling of my books?

No. The library is not involved with book sales. Authors will need to bring their own cash/change and devices for accepting debit/credit card transactions.
