EMPOWERMENT THROUGH THE LENS

Using Storytelling to Create Powerful Imagery

WHAT: Celebrate Black History Month with local and nationally-recognized artist duo CreativeSoul Photography. They are visual storytellers, redefining the narrative of Black youth in the media and showcasing Black excellence.

Join CreativeSoul Photography as they discuss how they've used their unique imagery to bring to life past, present, and future visions of black culture to create a society where all kids feel empowered to move in the world as their true authentic selves.

WHO: Regis and Kahran Bethencourt are husband and wife and the imaginative forces behind CreativeSoul Photography. Their work has been featured on the Steve Harvey Show, Teen Vogue, CNN, Glamour magazine, Vogue Italia, Black Enterprise, BET.com, on The Real daytime talk show, BBC News, the OWN network and many more.

WHEN: Saturday, February 11th

Art Exhibit 12:00pm to 2:00pm

Artist Talk 2:00pm to 3:00pm

WHERE: Gwinnett County Public Library
Duluth branch
3180 Main St., Duluth, GA 30096
