2024 BUDGET FOR GWINNETT COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

January 3, 2024 - The Gwinnett County Public Library is pleased with the passage of the 2024 budget and thanks the Gwinnett County Commissioners for their support of the library system.

"The additional funds allocated will help us expand our resources and retain highly qualified staff members as we continue to strive for excellence in providing library services to the community," said Charles Pace, Executive Director of the Gwinnett County Public Library.

"The Library Board of Trustees and our entire leadership team are thrilled at the historic investments made by Chairwoman Hendrickson and the Gwinnett County Board of Commissioners in support of our world-class library system," said Board Chairman Jonathan "JT" Wu.

The Gwinnett County Public Library is the most extensive circulating library in Georgia. It operates 15 branches and provides free, trusted resources and programming for our diverse community.
